Whereas, Our recent excursion to the city of Chicago, from the time we started until our return home was one of unmixed pleasure, and whereas, our brother Firemen of Chicago have spared no time pains or trouble to make our stay among them happy, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the heartfelt thanks be tendered to the Chicago Fire Department in general, for their kind treatment while we were among them

Resolved, That No. 2 is particularly entitled to our highest regard and esteem for the many polite and substantial favors shown us during our stay among them.—The Foreman and Company No. 4, shall always be gratefully remembered by us, for their friendly reception and many favors shown us while in their city. Chief Engineer of Chicago will please accept our thanks for his friendly attention. To Mr. Carpenter, the Conductor on the cars, and to the Railroad Co. our thanks are due, for their friendly attention, and liberality in carrying us safely over their road.

THEATRE—BENEFIT OF MR. JOHNSON.—We desire to remind our readers that Mr. Johnson, of whose excellent qualities, as an actor, we have taken frequent occasion to speak, makes his parting bow to our Milwaukee public this evening. The performances are for his benefit, and the programme is a very attractive one. The Thorne troupe are included in the cast. We hope to see Mr. Johnson greeted to-night by a crowded and appreciative audience. It is rare indeed that so finished an actor and so genial a gentleman appears to the patrons of a Theatre for their countenance and favor. Let us gladden the veteran with a bumper at parting.

The Sure Road to Fame and Fortune.

We talk it to be a demonstrable fact that no discovery or invention worth advertising at all can be advertised too extensively. The man whose mental vision is darkened by miserly instincts, whose small ties in his breeches pocket, cannot understand this; and if such an one in his male like groplings, should chance upon some new and useful truth, he would he would be afraid to take the sure road to celebrity, which lies through the columns of the press, lest he should be ruined by the bills. What a contrast does the brilliant and beneficial career of Prof. Holloway present to the blind stupidity of such a man. Having perfected, after years of laborious research and experiment, two remedies which he knew, with positive certainty, were absolute specifics for nearly ev y internal malady incident to humanity, he determined to give them a wider publicity than any other medicine had ever attained. His motive was noble and benevolent. He felt that he possessed the power of mitigating suffering and waging successful war with diseases heretofore unconquerable, and like a good champion he fearlessly entered the lists. Had he been moved by avarice instead of philanthropy he could not have taken a surer or shorter path to wealth.—The plan of advertising preparations, which actually accomplished all that empiricism had ever promised or medical orthodoxy attempted, of course proved remunerative. He flooded every nation with his medicines, and the world repaid him with a shower of gold. We vorily believe that there is no possible means of disseminating information among men that he has not adopted in giving notoriety to his Pills and Ointment.

The Hon. Maldon Dickenson, of New Jersey, once sarcastically likened the pole to big flagstaffs, and we have little doubt if they were flagstaff Holloway would contrive to have a bit of bunting nailed to each with his name and address inscribed upon it. In fact, such is the enterprize and irrepressible energy of the man, that we should scarcely be surprised to hear of the virtues of his medicines being inscribed on the desert sands of said Africa or traced in the eternal now that caps the peaks of the Andes. His central office for this hemisphere (he maps out his advertising ground by hemispheres) St Maiden Lane, has only been established about two years, and yet probably there are not five hundred adults out of our population of thirty millions who have not heard of Holloway's Pills and Ointment. Be this as it may, it is a statistical fact, verified by the books of the the establishment, that more than half a million of persons have within that time purchased the preparations at the New York Office and its Country Agencies. Could the amount of good they have effected in that period, in the United States alone, be computed and and placed on record, it would of itself form one of the proudest monument of success to which zealous philanthropy on the one hand and popular appreciation on the the other, have ever contributed.—N. Y. Day Book.

L. STANTON & CO.

City Auction Room.

I HAVE this day sold out all my Auction and Commission business to L. Stanton & Co., who will continue the business at the same stand, corner of East Water and Wisconsin streets. They are young men who come highly recommended and can be endorsed with sufficient capital to carry on the Auction and Commission business to any extent. I would therefore recommend them, believing that they will conduct their business honorably. I have consented and made arrangements with them, if not otherwise engaged, to sell any lots, stands, or goods or furniture for me that I or my friends may own, or any friends that have any goods or furniture, if they prefer to make an arrangement with me for the selling of such, it over the door.

I still continue to keep my Land Office and Real Estate business at the same stand, and will now be able to pay more attention to it than I have heretofore done. In a short time, as soon as I can get a suitable room, I intend to open a Real Estate Auction Room.

CALEB WALL.
Milwaukee, Nov. 1st, 1856. nov4

We have this day purchased from Caleb Wall all his Auction and Commission business, so far as it relates to Goods, Wares and Merchandise, and we are prepared to do the business and make advances upon the same, owned Mr. Wall did. We have also made arrangements with Mr. Wall to do the selling at auction for us. Any references wanted, shall be given satisfactorily, and we solicit a liberal patronage of his old customers and the public generally.

The business will hereafter be conducted under the firm of L. Stanton & Co., Successors to Caleb Wall.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THIS is to certify that I consideration of the many miraculous cures which have attended me in the erection of my new Mill, at Appleton in the town of Oconomowoc Waukesha County, I deem it proper and in justice to say, that the troubles arising in the starting of my Mill, did not lay in the fault of the machinery or water wheel, patented by I D Goodwin, and manufactured by Decker & Seville, but from other causes, and I do most cheerfully recommend said water wheel, to the Milling community, as being the best now in use, for driving any kind of machinery, and that it has fully come up to all the recommendations given to it I shall take great pleasure in showing my Mill, to any one desirous of using the best water wheel in the State In conclusion I would say to all parties building Mills to profit by my experience, and employ none but good, honest, steady and efficient Millwrights, and you will save money
